Ahuja Museum for Arts is a private, one-of-a-kind Museum. It houses and displays the personal art collection of Mr. S.D. Ahuja consisting of over 1200 artworks of 195 Artists. We will be showcasing over 1000 paintings from 2009 to 2011, by displaying a unique set of about 40 paintings from the collection every month. This collection has been acquired over the years and consists of art from around the world, particularly Asia and also from India. The current selection of over 60 pieces will remain on display until 31st Mar 2011. The next set of 50 paintings will be put up from 1 April 2011. The display will be changed every month. It will be our endeavour to encourage all residents and visitors to Calcutta to visit the Museum.

This display is strictly non-commercial, the paintings are not for sale and only for display.
